

With a special interest in human rights and harm reduction issues in particular, Mr. Daniel Wardé has been strongly involved with MENANPUD lately. Mr. Wardé has a BA in English literature from the Lebanese University. After a brief journey in teaching, he now has a long standing experience in the bookselling industry